TO THE Christian READER.

THERE is such a Tyranny in Custom, and it has so generally prevail'd in the Prefacing of BOOKS, that had I no other Inducement, that would be sufficient for this Address: However, having another, and that a more cogent one, I will think of no further Apology

This little BOOK, excellently design'd for the Education of Children, having pass'd several Impressions with Applause, it was judg'd convenient by the Bookseller to make it still more useful to the Learner; and to that End some necessary Amendments have been made, and divers Superfluities retrench'd, which swell'd the Book to a needless Bulk and Price; as namely, the Praxis to each Gradation of Syllables, are left out in the Body of the Book, and printed only at the Latter end, whither the painful Author in his Advertisement, in former Editions to his tender Reader refers him: And therefore it is to be wonder'd how the Printer of former Impressions could be guilty of such a Blunder as to print them both in the Middle and at the End. And this I think is enough, if not too much, to say in Praise of a Book that needs no Commendation; so I bid you Farewel.

Byles.

Advertisement to the Reader.

LEt the Learner be taught first to put one Syllable, and then read the Praxis to that, which he will find at the Latter End of the Book, and so proceed to all the rest.

The Christian Covenant.

ACCORDING to the Covenant which I made in my Baptism, I do give up my self to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, my only God, my Creator, my Redeemer, my Sanctifier, and my Preserver; and forsaking the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, I do resolve by the Grace of God, to serve him sincerely in Holiness, Righteousness and Sobriety, to my Life's end.

The Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed by thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our Dayly Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation. But deliver us from all Evil: For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and Glory, for ever, and ever. Amen.

The Creed.

Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into Hell; the third Day he rose again from the Dead; He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge both the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholick Church: The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of Sins; The Resurrection of the Body, and the Life Everlasting. Amen.

The Ten Commandments.

GOD spake all these Words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage.

I. Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven Image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my Commandment.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour and do all thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, thy cattel, nor the stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no Murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy Neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

A Praxis of One Syllable in Prose and Verse.

GOD blefs, keep, love, guide, guard and fave the Church, the whole World, our good King, and Realm : O Grant us all, in this our Day, Grace, and Peace, with Truth, through Chrift our Lord. Amen.

Fear God, trust in him with all your Heart, Mind, Might, Soul, and Strength, that your Days may be long in the Land which the Lord your God will give you : Please him well in all Things, know, love, ferve, and cleave to him, for this is your Life ; stand in awe, and fin not ; mufe in your own Heart on your Bed, and be ftill.

Work while it is Day, the Hour will come when none can work. Take heed how you hear, pray, read, preach, live, die. Search, try, prove your Hearts, Thoughts, Words, Works, Ways, and fo turn to the Lord with all your Hearts, that it may be well with you and your Seed.

Ask, and ye fhall have ; feek, and ye fhall find ; knock, and your Heart fhall live that feek the Lord.

Come to me, my Son, hear, and I will teach thee how to know, love, fear, and ferve thy God. Think off or much of God, who made you, with fear ; of his Son Chrift, that bought you with his dear Blood, with love ; of God the Holy Ghof, with joy, that will fave you from Sin and Hell, if you give up your felf to him, to be your guide to God. Give Thanks to the moft High God. Pray for Peace on Earth, and good will to all Men.

For me to live is Chrift, and to die is Gain. Chrift is the Gift of God, and Faith is the Gift of Chrift. Buy the Truth, and fell it not ; for what good will it do a Man to gain the whole World, and lofe his own Soul ? God is Man's chief Good. Moft Men fay, Who will fhew us what is Good ? But Lord, caufe thy Face to fhine on us. Live well, and you will die well. Fear God, and keep his Law ; for this is the whole of Man. Love God, hate Sin, flee the Lufts of the Flefh, the Luft of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life. Chrift is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. None but Chrift, none but Chrift ; what Things were gain to me, thofe I now count lofs, yea dung, that I may win Chrift, and be found in him at the laft Day, when the Trump fhall found, and call the Dead out of their Graves, whom God will judge, fome to Shame, fome to Blifs.

Lay up these Ten Words in thy Breast.

- I. THERE is but one God, and one Lord to know, love, and serve.
- II. I must serve him in Truth with my whole Heart.
- III. I must fear to take his Name in vain, lest I bring guilt upon my self.
- IV. I must keep the Lord's-Day with a pure Heart. Six Days I may work, but on the Lord's-Day I may not think my own Thoughts, or speak my own Words, or do my own Work, which may be done on the Week-day ; my Man or Maid that serves me, my Ox, or my Ass ought not to work, but rest on that day.
- V. I must fear, love, and please God, and all those that are to rule me by his Word.
- VI. I must not hurt or harm, much less kill my Friends or Foes.
- VII. I must keep my self pure, clean in Thought, Word, and Deed, and hate the Lusts of the Flesh.
- VIII. I may not dare to steal, or do the least wrong : Let him that stole steal no more.
- IX. I must lye to, and speak false of no Man.
- X. I must do as I would be done by.

Come near to me, my Son most dear,
 and to my words give ear,
 I will thee teach to know the way
 how thou the Lord maist fear.
 Who is the Man that would live long,
 and lead a Life most just ?
 See thou keep free thy Tongue and Thoughts from all Strife, Guile and Lust.
 Sin not ; but stand in awe of God ;
 be good in Word and Deed ;
 Seek Love and Peace with good and bad,
 yea do it with all speed.
 By what means may a young Child best his Life learn to keep pure ?
 If that he mind and keep God's Word,
 and of his Love make sure.
 Send out thy Light, Life, Love, and Truth, and lead me with thy Grace ;
 Oh guide me to the Hill, my God,
 where I may see thy face :

Then shall I to the House straight go of God my Joy and Fear ;
 And with my Heart give thanks to thee,
 O God, my Lord, most dear.
 Why art thou then so sad, my Soul,
 and fret'st thus in my Breast ?
 Still trust in God, for him to praise,
 I hold it to be best.
 By him I have good Help at need,
 in all my Toil and Pain ;
 He is my God who will soon turn my Grief to my great gain.

A Praxis of One, Two, Three, and Four Syllables.

A brief Paraphrase upon the C R E E D.

I Heartily believe and acknowledge One only God, distinguished into Three Persons, namely, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, infinite in Being, Understanding, Goodness, Power, Holiness, Justice, Truth, and Faithfulness ; the Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier, Preserver, Disposer, and Governour of all Persons and Things, and the most righteous and merciful Lord of all.

I believe also that all Mankind by wilful Sin are fallen short of the Glory of God, under his wrathful Displeasure, the Curse of the Law, and the Power of Sin and Satan, and that God the Father so loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son to be their Redeemer ; who being from everlasting to everlasting very God, of the same substance with, and equal with the Father, did take to himself our Nature, and became Man ; being conceived of the Holy Ghost in the Womb of the Virgin Mary, and born of her, and named JESUS CHRIST, having lived blameless without spot and guile, who did no sin upon Earth ; he was so holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from Sinners, and wrought many Miracles for the confirming of his Truth : He resigned and gave himself a Sacrifice for our Sins, and a Ransom for us in fulfilling all Righteousness, and suffering Death on the Cross ; and being buried, he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures ; and afterwards ascended far above all Heavens, where he sitteth Lord over all, at his Father's Right-hand in Glory ; and having ordained that all who sincerely repent, and believe in him, and love him above all things, and yield universal and constant Obedience to his holy, just, and good Commandments, even to the Death, shall be saved, and they that refuse shall be damned ; and commanded his Ministers to preach the everlasting glorious Gospel to every Creature in the World, he will come again, and raise the Bodies of all Men from Death, and will summon all the World before him. The Righteous he will sentence to Life everlasting, and the Ungodly he will adjudge to eternal Damnation.

Furthermore, I believe that God the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of the Father and the Son proceeding from both, is the Sanctifier, Counsellor, Comforter and Preserver of Mankind ; and that he was sent from the Father by the Son, to inspire and direct the Prophets, Evangelists, and Apostles, that they might fully reveal, declare and publish the whole Doctrine of Christ, being the glad Tydings of the Gospel ; and by multitude of evident uncontroll'd Miracles, and manifold wonderful Gifts to be the great Witness of Christ, and of the Truth of the Holy Scriptures ; and also to work, witness and inhabit in all that are drawn and perswaded to believe, that being first united to Christ their Head and Husband, and joined to the Church, which is his Mystical Body, and so justified, pardoned and adopted into the Number and Privilege of the Children of God, they may be a peculiar and chosen People sanctified to Christ, and may mortifie the Deeds of the Body, and overcome, by believing, the World and the Devil ; and being zealous of, and ready to every good Work, may serve God in Holiness, Righteousness, and Sobriety ; and may live in the special Love and Fellowship of all Saints ; and so in a joyful Hope of everlasting Life, at the glorious Appearing of the great God, the Saviour of the World, even Jesus Christ, who is God and Man, over all, Blessed for ever : To whom with the Father and Eternal Spirit, be ascribed World without end, the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory. Amen, Amen.

A Saving Resolution.

I Do by the Grace of Almighty God, humbly, reverently, sincerely, and thankfully take this one God for my only God, and Portion, and my chiefest Good, and this Lord Jesus Christ for my only Redeemer, Advocate, Intercessor, Lord, and Saviour ; and this Holy Ghost for my Sanctifier, my Counsellor, my Comforter, and my Keeper ; and the Doctrine revealed by him in the Holy Scriptures, and sealed by his Miracles, I do take for the Law of God, and the Rule of my Faith and Life ; and repenting unfeignedly of all my sins, I do entirely and eternally forsake them all, with the purpose of Heart, through Christ strengthening me, sincerely to obey him, both in Holiness to God, Righteousness to Men, Sobriety to my self, and in faithful Love to all the Saints, and Communion.

Communion with them against all the Devices and Temptations of the Devil, the Allurements of the World, and Motions of my own sinful Flesh, to the very Death.

Lord, I believe, help my Unbelief. Faith is the Substance of things hoped for, the Evidence of things not seen. He that believeth shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Sirs, what must I do to be saved? Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy House. Without faith it is impossible to please God; for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself; he that believeth not God, hath made him a Liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. God so loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting Life. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God. He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting Life, and he that believeth not the Son shall not see Life, but the Wrath of God abideth on him. As many as were ordained to eternal Life believed.

Holy Father, open thou mine Eyes for Jesus sake, and turn me from Darknes to Light, and from the Power of Satan to God, that I may receive forgiveness of Sins, and Inheritance among them which are sanctified by Faith that is in the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A broken Heart and contrite Spirit O God bestow on me:
Which is a Sacrifice indeed Well-pleasing unto thee.

J E H O V A H! who inhabit shall Thy glorious heavenly place?
Or whom wilt thou vouchsafe to see In Heaven thy blessed face?
The Man whose Heart and Life is sound, And walketh in the way
That holy is, and from God's Law, Who goeth not astray.
That to his Neighbour doth no harm In Body, Goods or Name;
But willingly relieves God's poor, Opprest with Want and Shame.
That putteth not to usury, His Money, Goods or Wealth:
Or for to hurt the innocent, Dares waste or wrong by stealth:
His Oath and all his Promises, He keepeth faithfully.
Although he made his Covenant so, That he gains loss thereby.
That in his Heart ungodly Men Regardeth not to know;
But all who love and fear the Lord, Favour to them doth show
Whoso doth all things here exprest, That God from him doth Assured is in th' other World Eternal Life to have.

BE evermore desirous of spiritual and heavenly Excellencies, but chiefly Godliness with Contentment, Chastity, Sobriety, Sincerity, Gentleness, Temperance, Patience, Thankfulness, brotherly Kindness and Faithfulness, abounding herein with Thanksgiving, following moreover with all diligence after the greatest of Graces, Charity, which is the Bond of Perfection. Nothing profiteth without Charity. Charity suffereth long; is kind, envieth not, vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up, doth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no Evil, rejoiceth not in Iniquity, but rejoiceth in the Truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, endureth all things, it never faileth: Now abideth Faith, Hope, Charity; these three, but the greatest of these is Charity, which whosoever is not negligent to endeavour to be established in, an abundant entrance shall be ministred unto him, into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; to whom with the Father and the Eternal Spirit be ascribed Thanksgiving for evermore. Amen and Amen.

ONE pleasant thing, thy Tabernacle, Lord give me to inhabit;
Where I may seek and see thy face, Till Heaven I inherit.
How precious, Almighty God, Thine Ordinances be,
Where joyfully thy Servants sing Hallelujahs unto thee?
One thing I long desired have For this divided Nation,
That God would graciously prevent Its utter Desolation.
One thing I long desired have For this divided Nation,
That unto it the Lord would be A peaceful Habitation.
One thing I long desired have, The one thing necessary
To mind, above the many things By which the World miscarry.
The one thing necessary is To glorifie the Lord,
In thought, in word, in deed, in truth, In love with one accord.
The next great good thing I would have O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Is Union with one living God, Through Jesus Christ his Merit,
That I may have Communion In Body, Soul and Spirit,
With God on Earth, in Heaven above His Glory to inherit.
Where I shall see thee face to face, All glorious Majesty, Triumphing over Enemies With Saints eternally.
Thy loving Kindness I esteem Above all worldly Wealth,
For of my Soul and Body both Thou art the saving Health.
The light of thy good Countenance Lift graciously on me.
Who am thy humble Servant, Lord, Delighting much in thee,
And in thy Testimonies pure, Purer than Gold most fine;
Sweeter than Honey and the Comb, I count thy Word divine.
Rejoycing greatly with all Saints To hold Communion
In Faith, in Hope, in Charity, Though not of my perswasion.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Be given Dominion,
Throughout the World, by all the Saints With humble adoration.

[Amen.]

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our Learning, grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed Hope of everlasting Life, which thou hast given through our Saviour Jesus Christ, in whose Name, Merits, Mediation and Words, we pray,

O UR Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil. Amen.

A Praxis of five or six Syllables.

The wicked with their wickedness, In every holy Nation,
To Godly Kings and Rulers just, Are an Abomination.
The Godly with their Godliness In every Christian Nation,
To righteous Kings and Rulers are The surest Preservation.

L ET all Wrath, Malice, Injustice, Adultery, Idolatry, Hypocrisie, Contention, Sedition, Lasciviousness, sensuality, Forcation, and all other Abominations be put away, hated, abhorred, abandoned effectually and everlastingly by all Professors of Christianity, and let us with unanimity make supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks continually for the Queen's most excellent Majesty, with all in Authority, that we may live quietly and peaceably under her in all godliness and honesty, sobriety and sincerity, devoting our selves to hospitality, liberality, voluntarily and universally, without partiality to all Men, especially to the Household of Faith; being kindly affectioned one to another in brotherly Love without dissimulation, affectionately and peaceably pursuing with due Consideration and Moderation; Reformation among, and Reconciliation with all of all Perswasions, who are predestinated to be Partakers of Regeneration, Adoption, Justification, absolution from, and remission of all their Iniquities, Sanctification, which consists of mortification of the old Man, and sanctification of the new, with Salvation unto Life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our all-sufficient Propitiation.

A Prayer for the Holy Spirit.

HOLY Father, thou hast made a most gracious and free Promise to give thy holy Spirit to them that ask him, and hast also said, If any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his, O pour upon us the Spirit of Adoption, Grace and Supplication, whereby we may cry, Abba, Father, for the Spirit to help our Infirmities; for we know not what we should pray for as we ought, except the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us, according to the will of God, with Groanings which cannot be uttered. Nor can we ever be changed into the Image of God from Glory to Glory, or mortifie the Deeds of the Body, that we may live in the Spirit; nor know our selves to be the Sons and Heirs of God, but by the Spirit; for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, are the Sons of God, and Co-heirs with Christ; and the Spirit it self also beareth witness with our Spirits, that we are the Children of God. O do not therefore deny to us thy poor Children thy good Spirit (which thou hast promised, and Christ hath purchased, for thy Son's sake) to rest upon us, and to dwell in us, as a Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, of Counsel, Power, Faith, Love, and of a sound Mind, to make us of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord, which is the beginning of all true Wisdom: That praying in the Holy Ghost, we may pray with the Spirit, and may pray with the Understanding also; we may sing with the Spirit, and we may sing with the Understanding also; and being filled with the Spirit, may speak to our selves in Psalms, Hymns, and spiritual Songs, singing and making melody in our Hearts unto the Lord, giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jesus, through whom we have an access by one Spirit unto the Father; for every good and perfect gift which cometh from God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, the Father of Mercies, the Father of Lights, and the God of all Comfort, who only blesseth us with all spiritual Blessings in heavenly places in Christ, and according to his Mercy saveth us, by the washing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which we most humbly beseech thee to shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Lord; that being justified by his Grace through Faith, we may have peace with God, and be made Heirs according to the hope of eternal Life, rejoicing in hope of the Glory of God, in that hope which maketh not ashamed; because the Love of God is shed abroad in our Hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us: for we our selves, which have the first Fruits of the Spirit, are sealed with that holy Spirit of Promise, which is the Earnest of our Inheritance.

Even

Even we our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the Adoption, to wit, the Redemption of the purchased Possession, unto the praise of the Glory of his Grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved. Unto him be Glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all Ages, World without end. Amen.

Prayers to be used before the reading of the Holy Scriptures.

O Lord, open thou mine Eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy Law, and order thou my Steps in thy Word, and let not any Iniquity have Dominion over me, for the sake of Jesus Christ.

Holy Father, send forth according to thy gracious Promise, the Spirit of Truth and Holiness into my Heart, to guide me into all Truth; and sanctifie me through thy Truth, thy Word is Truth; through the Merit of Jesus Christ. Amen.

2. And he is the Pro-pi-ti-a-ti-on for our sins; and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole World.

3. And here-by we know that we love him, if we keep his Com-mand-ments.

5. But who-so keep-eth his Word, in him ve-ri-ly is the love of God per-fect-ed, here-by know we that we are in him.

6. He that saith he a-bi-deth in him, ought himself al-so to walk e-ven as he walk-ed.

7. Bre-thren, I write no new Com-mand-ment un-to you, but an old Com-mand-ment, which ye had from the be-gin-ning; the old Com-mand-ment is the Word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8. A-gain, a new Com-mand-ment I write un-to you, which thing is true in him, and in you, be-cause the dark-ness is past, and the true Light now shin-eth.

9. He that saith he is in the Light, and hat-eth his Bro-ther, is in Dark-ness e-ven un-till now.

A Morning

A Morning Prayer.

O God, and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, whom no Man knoweth but by thy special Gift: Grant, that unto the rest of thine exceeding great Benefits towards me, this, which is the greatest that can be bestowed upon Mankind, may be added also, namely, that as thou hast raised up my Body from fast and sound Sleep, so also thou wilt deliver my Mind from the Sleep of Sin, and from the Darknes of this World: And after Death restore the same Body to Life, as well as thou hast called it again from Sleep. For that which is Death to us, is but Sleep unto thee. I pray and beseech thee, that through thy Goodness, this Body of mine, may be a fellow and furtherer of all Godliness to my Soul in this Life, so as it may be a Partner with it of the endless Felicity in the Life to come, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. For whose sake, and by whom, thou givest us all good and wholesome things to our welfare. Amen.

An Evening Prayer.

O Lord, my God, my Father, and my Saviour, forasmuch as thou hast granted me thy Grace to come to the end of this Day, and hast created the Night for Man to rest in: I, casting my self most humbly down before thy holy Majesty, beseech thee most heartily to shew me this Goodness to the residue of thine infinite Benefits, that I may so rest this Night, to the Comfort and Refreshment of mine Infirmary, as my Heart may still be left up to thee: And my Soul have her spiritual Rest as well as the Body taketh his. Let not my Sleep be unmeasurable to please excessively the ease of my Flesh: But only to suffice the Necessity of my Nature, that I may be the better disposed to thy Service to morrow.

Preserve me also from all Uncleanneſs both of Body and Soul, keeping me from all Temptations of the Enemy, and from all Dangers that may befall me. And because I have not passed this day without offending thee after divers sorts and manners: Like as now in the absence of the Sun, thou sendest Darknes to cover all things: So also vouchsafe to wipe out all mine Offences, by thine infinite Mercy, so as they may never come to reckoning before the Judgment-Seat. All which things I ask and crave of thee, in the Name, and for the Sake of thine only Son, my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, according to the Rule which he hath given us to pray by, saying:

Our Father which art, &c.
